

Dear Exhibitor,

We have received information that an ongoing scam has emerged once again, though under a new name. International Fairs Directory, formerly known as Expo Guide, has once again posted a letter using our name and our trade show to request data. Please ignore this letter if you receive it.

If you happen to have been caught out by the scam do not respond and do not pay. The scam company will threaten legal action, but these threats are idle and nobody has ever been successfully taken to court by this company.

We only work with trusted partners who we will introduce to you. We also never forward your details to third parties who do not work for Restaurants Canada.

If you are ever unsure whether communications have come from Restaurants Canada, please do not hesitate to check with us.

Sincerely,

Show Management
